4 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
5 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
6 AT TACOMA

7 JAMES A. BOYD,

8 Plaintiff,

9 v.

10 BRENT CARNEY, K. ROBINSON, and
11 RICK CROSS,

12 Defendants.

No. C11-5782 BHS/KLS

ORDER GRANTING IN PART/DENYING IN PART PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO COMPEL

13 Before the Court is Plaintiff's Motion to Compel. ECF No. 13. Having reviewed the 14 motion, Defendants' opposition (ECF No. 16), Plaintiff's reply (ECF No. 17), and balance of the 15 record, the Court finds and ORDERS:

16 BACKGROUND

17 In his complaint, Plaintiff alleges that in June 2011, while he was incarcerated at the 18 Washington State Penitentiary (WSP), Defendants changed his mandatory Halal meat diet to a 19 metabolic diet without any medical dietary authority and without first consulting him and 20 contrary to Plaintiff's religious beliefs. ECF No. 5, at 5-6. Plaintiff alleges that First 21 Amendment right to exercise his religion and Fourteenth Amendment rights to be free of 22 discrimination. He also claims that Defendants violated his rights under the Religious Land Use
23 and Institutionalized Persons Act, 42 U.S.C. § 2000cc et seq. (2000 ed) (RLUIPA).

24 DISCUSSION

25 On November 21, 2011, Defendants received "Plaintiff's First Set of Interrogatories and 26 Request for Production to Brent Carney, K Robinson, and Rick Cross." ECF No. 16, Exh. 1

1 (Declaration of Ohad M. Lowy, ¶ 3). On December 20, 2011, Defendants served Plaintiff with
2 their objections and responses and made 82 pages of responsive documents available to Plaintiff.
3 Id. ¶ 4; Motion, Attachment 1. On January 23, 2012, Defendants’ counsel received from 4 Plaintiff a request to meet and confer regarding discovery responses. Id., ¶ 5. On January 30,
5 2012, the parties participated in a telephonic conference but were unable to resolve their
6 discovery dispute. Id., ¶ 6.

7
8 In his motion to compel, Plaintiff addresses the sufficiency of several of Defendants’
9 responses, but his objections may be distilled to two issues. The first is that he objects to 10 Defendants’ insistence that documents responsive to his discovery requests will be made
11 available for inspection and review either by his representative, by CD, or at a cost of 10 cents
12 per page in addition to postage costs. The second is that he disagrees with the objections
13 submitted in response to Request for Production 5.

14
15 A. Production for Inspection, CD, or Cost – Request for Production of Documents 1, 2, 16 3, and 4

17 Plaintiff’s motion to compel the production of documents at Defendants’ expense is 18 denied. Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(a) requires the producing party to make the relevant production
19 available so that the party making the request may “inspect, copy, test or sample” any designated
20 documents. By offering to provide the documents in electronic format, making them available
21 for inspection by a representative, or offering them in hard copy at cost, Defendants have met
22 their obligation under the rule. There is nothing in Rule 34(a) that requires Defendant to pay for 23 the cost of the production. Plaintiff’s indigent status does not dictate a contrary finding. He 24 remains responsible for prosecuting his case and for funding his litigation. See, United States v.
25 MacCollom, 426 U.S. 317, 321, 96 S. Ct. 2086, 2089, 48 L. Ed. 2d 666 (1976) (“the expenditure
26 of public funds [on behalf of an indigent litigant] is proper only when authorized by Congress

1 ...”]. The in forma pauperis statute, 28 U.S.C. § 1915 provides for the payment of filing fee and
2 service of process only. In Silva v. Di Vittorio, 658 F.3d 1090 (9th Cir. 2011), the Ninth Circuit
3 reiterated the limited role of prison authorities in assisting prisoners with their litigation. Prison
4 authorities are only required to assist inmates in the preparation and filing of meaningful legal
5 papers by providing prisoners with adequate law libraries or adequate assistance from persons
6 trained in the law. Silva, 658 F.3d at 1102 (quoting Bounds v. Smith, 430 U.S. 817, 828 (1977)).
7 The Court further held that this assistance is only limited to the pleading stage. Id. (citing Lewis
8 v. Casey, 518 U.S. 343, 384 (1996)).

10 B. Request for Production No. 2

11 Plaintiff also complains as to the completeness of Defendants’ response to Request for 12 Production No. 2. In that request, Plaintiff asked Defendant Cross to produce all records, email
13 and chrono screen communications regarding Defendant Cross’s treatment of Mr. Boyd and 14 discussions between Defendant Cross with WDOC and WSP staff (including Carney and 15 Robinson) regarding Boyd’s Halal and metabolic diets. ECF No. 13, at 13. Although 16 Defendants lodged objections, they also made responsive documents available for inspection
17 either by Plaintiff’s representative, by CD, or at a cost of 10 cents per page (with postage costs).
18 In addition, Defendant Cross states that as to e-mails between himself and Defendants Carney
19 and Robinson, there are no responsive documents in his care, custody or control. Id. This is not 20 a complete response as the request was not limited to emails and records between the three 21 defendants. Rather, it was with regard to WDOC and WSP staff, including the named
22 defendants.
23
24

25 Accordingly, Defendants are directed to provide an amended response to Request for 26 Production No. 2.

1 C. Request for Production No. 5 to Defendant Carney Regarding Purchase of Halal
2 Meats

3 Defendants objected to this request on relevance grounds and because the documents are 4 not in the possession of Defendant Carney. ECF No. 6, at 5. The undersigned finds that this
5 request is not relevant to the issues in this case. Mr. Boyd has never raised an issue regarding the 6 procurement of Halal meat. His issue in this case is that he wants Halal meat served with his 7 metabolic diet. Therefore, Plaintiff's motion to compel the production of further response from 8 Defendant Carney to Request No. 5 is Denied.

9 Accordingly it is ORDERED:

11 (1) Plaintiff's motion to compel as to Request for Production No. 2, as limited above,
12 is GRANTED and the balance of his motion to compel (ECF No. 13) is DENIED. Defendants
13 shall provide further responses, if any, to Request for Production No. 2, as directed herein, within 14 twenty (20) days of the date of this Order.

15 (2) The Clerk shall send copies of this Order to Plaintiff and counsel for Defendants.
16

17 DATED this 30th day of March, 2012.
